Dear friends of CAAC:

The Columbus Area Arts Council (CAAC) is honored to be part of a community with a rich legacy of celebrating the arts and a renewed commitment to supporting local artists.

The arts are a crucial economic driver for cities, and we seek your commitment to advance the arts for our entire community. This year's theme, "Hats Off to the Arts," underscores how supporting the arts enhances our city. All proceeds will support the Arts Council's mission of "strengthening the community through arts and culture."

Guests will enjoy a delightful evening at Harrison Lake Country Club, which features a Pop-up Shop and Silent Art Auction showcasing local artists. The Live Auction will offer exceptional art and cultural experiences, and our Fund a Need initiative will focus on Studio C, a community art studio welcoming everyone from crafters to professional artists.

Enjoy delicious food, drinks, and live music by regional favorite Milligan. Thank you for your support of the Columbus Area Arts Council. For more information, please contact me at bhawkins@artsincolumbus.org.

Warm regards,

Brooke Hawkins
Executive Director

2024 FUND A NEED: STUDIO C

Studio C is:

- A community arts studio
- For adults and teens
- Welcoming all skill levels

Studio C is CAAC's new community arts studio. With an emphasis on Glass and Ceramic arts, the studio welcomes all skill levels to workshops and open studio sessions. Located at Columbus Propeller on the AirPark Campus, Studio C will be equipped with professional-quality tools, materials, and safety equipment.

Studio C includes three key components:

- Artist-Led Workshops: Accessible, beginner-friendly workshops will be offered to the public at low cost.
- Open Studio Hours: The public can drop in to use the equipment and seek expert advice on their projects.
- Artists in Residence: Professional artists will create their own work, sharing their expertise with the community.
